Honoring
James D. Kaufman

Award Ceremony
Thursday, October 19, 2017
3:45 - 4:45 pm

(Immediately prior to the 8th Annual Consuls Reception)
Federal Reserve Bank of Boston
Cityside Lounge

*Friends, family, colleagues, and WorldBoston supporters are warmly encouraged to join this special event honoring Jim Kaufman
— and to join WorldBoston's signature event, the 8th Annual Consuls Reception*

The Award: WorldBoston presents the International Citizen Award to members of the Boston area community who by their outstanding example highlight the value of international engagement and global cooperation. After 2017 this award will be renamed the James D. Kaufman Award in honor of the 20th recipient.

The Recipient: Jim has been active on behalf of international engagement and global cooperation in the Boston area for many years. His recently completed seven-year service as WorldBoston's chair typifies his selfless and astute approach. Greater Boston has greatly benefited from the informed perspective on global affairs and devotion to bridge-building of this true international citizen.

Past Recipients: Ronald E. Logue, Charles R. Stith, Patrick B. Moscaritolo, Seiji Ozawa, John P. Hamill, Alfred Zeien, Benjamin Taylor, John Drew, William F. Weld and Susan Weld, Charles Francis Adams, John Kapioltas, John Kenneth Galbraith, Edwin O. Reischauer, David McCord, Jean Mayer, An Wang, Peter A. Brooke, Leo L. Beranek, John A. Quelch.

The Award Ceremony: The ceremony will be held immediately prior to the 8th Annual Consuls Reception, as an opportunity for the community to recognize Jim's exceptional contributions to international citizenship. Tickets to the award ceremony will include admission to the Consuls Reception. Award sponsorships and congratulations will be recognized in a combined dual-event program book. Friends, colleagues, and supporters of WorldBoston are warmly encouraged to participate.

How to Participate: Please see reverse and worldboston.org for sponsor and ticket information. Pledges and copy are due by October 1 for inclusion in program book.

NOTE: The 20th WorldBoston International Citizen Award will be given just prior to the Consuls Reception. Consuls Reception sponsorships are available at similar levels. Please visit worldboston.org and contact Mary Yntema (myntema@worldboston.org) or Tom Luly (tluly@worldboston.org) for further information about the Consuls Reception.

Honoring James D. Kaufman

- Sponsoring the International Citizen Award is a fitting tribute to Jim Kaufman. Sponsors at the Bronze level and above will have the opportunity to use their program book space to congratulate Jim, or show their company's support. All Award supporters at the Friend level and above can attend to offer congratulations in person.
- Sponsoring the International Citizen Award provides critical support for WorldBoston, a 55-year-old nonpartisan organization which embodies the slogan, "The World in Boston and Boston in the World." This year WorldBoston's Citizen Diplomacy program is hosting over 500 international leaders in their fields, and connecting them with peers and professional resources in Greater Boston. Our Global Education program is offering over 40 events, such as our Chat & Chowder and Great Decisions series and our exciting high school international affairs tournament, to engage internationally-minded Bostonians in topics of global importance.
- Sponsoring the International Citizen Award provides many benefits: Award sponsors receive year-long benefits similar to Consuls Reception supporters, including tickets to both the Award Ceremony and the Consuls Reception, exceptional visibility at a landmark event in Boston's international calendar, and extensive WorldBoston membership benefits.
